ATHLETE OATH

I, a young footballer, promise to bring respect, friendship and solidarity to all those who with me they will share the sporting and competitive spirit in these days.

I promise to be fair and loyal, allowing my teammates and my opponents to enjoy themselves peacefully. I will avoid any impropriety, welcoming a sincere handshake.

I ask for help and sincere support from parents and fans, so my party will be more complete, pleasant to remember and to tell, when, when I grow up, I too have to decide about my children's education. I wish everyone a splendid tournament, as a sign of friendship between all of us and the purity of sport.

BASILICA DI SAN PIETRO

It is the largest of Rome's four papal basilicas and is often described as the largest church in the world due to both its size and its importance as a center of Catholicism. However, it is not the cathedral church of the Roman diocese since this title belongs to the basilica of San Giovanni in Laterano, which is also the first in dignity being the Mother and Head of all the Churches of the City and of the World.

CASTEL SANT'ANGELO

Mole Adrianorum or Castellum Crescentii in the X-XII century, also known as Hadrian's mausoleum, is a monument of Rome, located on the right bank of the Tiber opposite the pons Aelius not far from the Vatican, it is connected to the Vatican State through the corridor fortified of the "passetto". The castle was radically modified several times in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance.

FORO ITALICO

It includes the Olympic Stadium, the Marble Stadium, the Foro Italico Park, the Rome Tennis Stadium, the Grand Stand Arena, the Nicola Pietrangeli Stadium, the Foro Italico Tennis Club. On 7 May 2015, the "Le Leggende dello Sport Italiano - Walk of fame" route was inaugurated on Viale delle Olympics; 100 plaques bearing the names of legends of Italian sport have been set along this route.

PAPA FRANCESCO

Jorge Mario Bergoglio (Buenos Aires, 17 December 1936), is since 13 March 2013 the 266th pope of the Catholic Church and bishop of Rome, 8th sovereign of the Vatican City State.
